ABSTRACT

Bugay-dagat is an online platform that delivers fresh and dried seafood directly from local fishermen and vendors to consumers. Bugay-Dagat makes the process faster, more affordable, and more reliable while ensuring customers enjoy the ease of online ordering. At the same time, the platform helps strengthen the livelihoods of fishermen and vendors by giving them fair access to a wider market.

Customers can easily browse the selection of seafood, place orders, and track their deliveries through a simple online platform. They can use their smartphones or laptops to look for the seafood they want, and they can pay online or by cash on delivery.

Residents of the First District of Iloilo can now access our services conveniently from home. With Bugay-Dagat, transparency is ensured by providing clear details on where the seafood comes from and how it is handled. We make sustainable seafood accessible to all—supporting local communities, promoting fair trade, and delivering fresh, clean products right to your doorstep.
